

2nd Annual Chestnut Saturday, September 10, 2011

Cataloochee Ranch at Maggie Valley, NC is the site for the 2nd Annual Chestnut Saturday. Events will start 10 AM and run until 5 PM. Tickets for Chestnut Saturday are $10 per person with children 12 and under free. Horseback rides and fishing will be offered at an additional fee.

Chestnut Saturday will include live performances by bluegrass bands, including Josh Goforth and the Hazel Creek Band, and clogging teams, one of which will be the Fines Creek Flatfooters (kids 13 and under). Quality crafts people will display their wares. Wildlife Biologist, Rob Gudger will have his timber wolves on display. Vendors will be providing food on the grounds and the Ranch House will host a buffet lunch. Tours of the Cataloochee chestnut orchard, one of the Carolinas Chapter's best, will be conducted throughout the event. Representatives from The American Chestnut Foundation will be available at the Chestnut Cabin to answer questions and talk to people about joining the organization to help with the restoration of the American chestnut.

Please call Richard Coker at 828-926-1345 if you have questions about ticket sales for the event.
