

Carolinas Chapter Meeting
Saturday, August 20, 2011

Come join us for a day of chestnut fellowship at the Annual Meeting of the Carolinas Chapter of The American Chestnut Foundation® at Daniel Stowe Botanical Garden, 6500 South New Hope Road, Belmont, NC, 10 am until 2 pm. Admission to the meeting is $12 with youth 12 and under free. Refreshments and lunch are included. Visit the Garden and Orchid Conservatory prior to and after the meeting and during lunch at no additional charge. Hours of operation for DSBG are 9 am until 5 pm.

Please let us know how many are coming so we can plan for lunch. Contact Doug Gillis by phone 704-542-0627 or by E-mail at dgillis001@carolina.rr.com .

During the meeting, we will discuss:

- Carolinas Chapter Orchard Pollinations and Inoculations, 2011.
- Pollinations at Meadowview made by Carolinas Chapter Volunteers and Interns
- Research work being done on Phytophthora cinnamomi, or root rot at Chestnut Return Farms, Seneca, SC
- TACF's Restoration Planting Plan
- Pests affecting Chestnut Orchards—Oriental Gall Wasps and Granulate (Asian) Beetles

A map showing where Daniel Stowe Botanical Garden is located south of Belmont, NC, along NC 279, is posted under News and Announcements. The red marker on the map marks the location.